Numb. 13431.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thurſday June 28, to Saturday June 30, 1792.

Whitehall, June 30.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, has been preſented to the King by Richard Glover, Eſq; One of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, actuated by a zealous Attachment to the Government and Conſtitution, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmeſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection towards your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, and to return your Majeſty our ſincere Acknowledgements for the Meaſure which your Majeſty has thought proper to adopt to guard againſt and counteract the Effects of wicked and ſeditious Publications.

We have obſerved, with Concern and Indignation, the Prevalence of ſeditious Writings, and the Attempt of a few evil-minded Perſons to excite Diſcontents in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will chearfully exert ourſelves to the utmoſt, as Magiſtrates and in our ſeveral Stations, to diſcourage and ſuppreſs, by every legal Meaſure in our Power, all Attempts that may be made to diſturb the Peace and Order of Society, or to diminiſh the Bleſſings of our happy Conſtitution in Church and State.

Whitehall, June 30.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

THE Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Somerſet, aſſembled by public Advertiſement, beg Leave to approach your Throne, to teſtify their grateful Acknowledgements of the unremitted Care and Attention you have invariably beſtowed, to preſerve to them, unimpaired, a Conſtitution, which, whilſt it poſſeſſes the Admiration, excites the Envy of ſurrounding Nations. Impreſſed, Sire, with theſe Sentiments, they cannot ſee, but with the deepeſt Regret, any Attempts made to ſhake the public Confidence in that glorious Fabrick which the Wiſdom and Virtue of their Anceſtors have tranſmitted to them.

When wild and ſeditious Tenets and Opinions, under ſpecious Pretences, are obtruded on their Conſideration, the mild and equitable Diſtribution of Juſtice, by which their Civil and Religious Liberties are ſecured, will be endangered, if not totally deſtroyed.

But, to that ſeaſonable Endeavour, to awaken us to a juſt Senſe of our Situation, (which your Majeſty

May you, Sire, long receive the Effects of our Gratitude, in a due and proper Subjection to the Law, a peaceable and friendly Demeanour towards each other, and the moſt ſincere and dutiful Loyalty to your Throne.

By Order, and on Behalf of the Meeting,

Tho. S. Jolliffe, Sheriff.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Town Clerk, Comburgeſſes and Burgeſſes, Gentlemen and Clergy of the Borough and Soke of Grantham in the County of Lincoln.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Town Clerk, Comburgeſſes and Burgeſſes, Gentleen and Clergy of the Borough and Soke of Grantham in the County of Lincoln, beg Leave to return our moſt grateful Acknowledgements for your Majeſty's paternal Care for the Welfare and Tranquillity of this Kingdom, manifeſted by your late wiſe and ſeaſonable Proclamation againſt ſeditious Publications.

We do moſt earneſtly aſſure your Majeſty of our zealous and unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and to the Government and Conſtitution of this Kingdom as by Law eſtabliſhed, the Sources of that Freedom and Proſperity which your Majeſty's Subjects enjoy under your mild and moſt auſpicious Reign.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, your Majeſty may depend upon our utmoſt Exertions to give Effect to your Majeſty's Proclamation, and to defeat the Attempts of thoſe who would create Diſcontent and Diſaffection in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, to the Diſturbance of the Tranquillity and the Interruption of the Proſperity of a free and happy People.

Grantham, June 19, 1792.

[Tranſmitted by Thomas Manners Sutton, Eſq; Deputy Recorder, in the Abſence and by the Deſire of his Grace the Duke of Beaufort, Recorder of that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Lanark.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Lanark, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the Sentiments of Subjects who are loyal to your Family and Government, and ſenſible of the Bleſſings they enjoy under the Conſtitution of their Country.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we feel ourſelves particularly called upon at this Moment to expreſs our Abhorrence of thoſe ſeditious and inflammatory Writings, which Diſaffection has induſtriouſly diſſeminated, and are the juſt Object of your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, and to join the reſpectable Part of our Fellow Citizens, who are eager to avow their unqualified Approbation of the temperate Wiſdom and Firmneſs that have dictated it.

Our happy Conſtitution we deſire to regard with a partial Affection and a becoming Reverence; and while we rejoice that, in that Conſtitution, ample Powers are veſted for it's own Melioration, we reflect, with Pride, that by a ſteady Adherence to the Principles eſtabliſhed at the Revolution, our Country has attained a Pitch of Dignity, of Wealth, and of political Happineſs. that are the Envy of the World, and of which we ſhall in vain ſearch for an Example in the Page of Hiſtory.

In our ſeveral Capacities, as Magiſtrates or as Individuals, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that it ſhall be our Care, in conſonance to your Royal Proclamation, ſedulouſly to watch over the Public Peace, convinced that a Love of Order and a Reſpect for the Laws are the beſt Earneſt of the Public Proſperity.

Signed in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, this 23d Day of June, 1792.

Hyndford, Præſes.

[Tranſmitted by Sir James Steuart Denham, Bart. Repreſentative in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater in the County of Somerſet.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater, having moſt ſeriouſly conſidered your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation for the Suppreſſion of many wicked and ſeditious Writings, that have been lately moſt induſtriouſly diſperſed, tending, by an oſtentatious Diſplay of deluſive and impracticable Theories, to ſubvert all Order and good Government, and to ſubſtitute in their Room nothing but Anarchy and Confuſion, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our grateful Acknowledgements for this freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's paternal Solicitude for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People. Aſſured that the Freedom of our Perſons, the Security of our Property, and the general Proſperity of the Empire, are intimately connected with the Continuance of the preſent Form of Government, we look on every Attempt to vilify that Form as highly criminal, and every Innovation on it as extremely dangerous to the deareſt and moſt important Intereſts of our Country.

We are convinced that no efficient Government can ſubſiſt without certain Gradations of Property and Condition, and that thoſe Gradations ſupport and are mutually ſupported by our mixed Form of Legiſlature, the Source of our Happineſs as Individuals, and of our Strength and Reſpectability as a People.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we ſolemnly pledge ourſelves to act in ſtrict Conformity with the gracious Intentions of your Majeſty, communicated to us in the late Proclamation, and to diſcountenance and and ſuppreſs, to the utmoſt of our Power, every Attempt, whether direct or indirect, to ſubvert the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms, or any Way diſturb the Public Tranquillity, ſo eminently promoted by your Majeſty's auſpicious Government.

[Tranſmitted by Earl Powlett, Recorder of that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bromſgrove in the County of Worceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Bromſgrove, impreſſed with the deepeſt Gratitude for the Happineſs we have enjoyed under your auſpicious Governmenf, wiſh to make our Acknowledgements, and to declare our firm Attachment to your Royal Perſon. We are moſt gratefully ſenſible, as of the unceaſing Attention you have ever ſhown towards us, ſo likewiſe of the late great Inſtance of it, your Majeſty's moſt gracious Proclamation reſpecting the late numerous Publications, tending to excite Sedition in this Realm. We are fully convinced that a Submiſſion to the Laws of a Country is the only Way to give Energy to it's Government. Our's are ſo mild and happily attempered, that in wiſhing them every Degree of Strength, we know full well that we are deſiring our own Happineſs, and that of all your Majeſty's Subjects. We view, with infinite Pleaſure, the flouriſhing State at which, under your benign Influence, we are arrived. We abhor and deteſt thoſe ſeditious Writings, which can have no other Tendency than to diſturb that Peace and Proſperity we ſo amply poſſeſs. Our happy Conſtitution is moſt juſtly dear to us, and we give the moſt ardent Thanks to your Majeſty for yonr tender Solicitude for it's Preſervation, which we ſhall ever repay by a moſt firm and affectionate Attachment to your Sacred Perſon and to your Royal Houſe.

[Tranſmitted by the Rev. Thomas Fontaine, Vicar of Bromſgrove.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Corporation, Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Great Torrington, in the County of Devon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Corporation, Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Great Torrington, with all Humility beg Leave to lay before your Throne the ſtrongeſt Aſſurance of a loyal and affectionate Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government; an Attachment which hath been ever alive in our Hearts, which Time and Experience have confirmed in us, and which we deem it at this Time more eſpecially our Duty to expreſs and declare.

We cannot, without the utmoſt Concern and Abhorrence, obſerve the Endeavours uſed to looſen the Obligations of Obedience, and to raiſe Diſcontents in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, by ſeditious Publications induſtriouſly diſperſed, and preſſed upon their Attention; and by every Method of propagating Doctrines and Opinions tending to ſubvert the Laws and Government of this Country. With grateful Hearts we offer the humble Tribute of our Thanks to your Majeſty for your paternal Care and Concern for the Welfare of your People, inſtanced anew in the Meaſures taken to check theſe daring Attempts, and to prevent in Time what might otherwiſe have been the evil Conſequences of them:

We conſider it no leſs our Intereſt than our Duty, both to obey and to inforce the Proclamation which your Majeſty hath cauſed to be publiſhed, and the Wiſdom of Parliament approved: And we are happy in the Conviction that ſuch are the Principles and Reſolution of the Generality of your People. We glory in the Name aud Privileges of Engliſhmen; and we reſolve to do our utmoſt to ſupport and continue down to our Children that invaluable incomparable Conſtitution, both in Church and State, which is the Admiration of other Countries, and the Glory of our own: A Conſtitution under which we have full Enjoyment of true Liberty, both Civil and Religious, are flouriſhing and powerful, happy in ourſelves and reſpected by our Neighbours, prized as Friends and feared as Enemies.

May the Great and Almighty Director of all Things preſerve this moſt excellent Conſtitution to us and our Poſterity to the End of Time; and may your Majeſty long, very long, be the providential Inſtrument of its Protection and Continuance to a grateful, loyal and free People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply, of the County of Selkirk;

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects; the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply, of the County of Selkirk, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our grateful Thanks and ſincere Acknowledgments for the unremitted Care and conſtant Affection with which your Majeſty is pleaſed to watch over the Intereſt and Welfare of this Realm; and, in particular, for your Majeſty's gracious and well-timed Proclamation relative to divers wicked and ſeditious Writings, which have been of late printed, publiſhed, and induſtriouſly diſperſed throughout this Kingdom.

Impreſſed with the ſtrongeſt Sentiments of Veneration for our inimitable Conſtitution, as ſettled at the Glorious Revolution; animated with the moſt zealous and ardent Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family; ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, we will ever be ready to ſtep forth and declare our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of all ſeditious Practices, and of the Authors and Publiſhers of all inflammatory Writings.

Prompted by Inclination, as well as the Knowledge of it's being our Duty, we are determined to exert ourſelves, to the utmoſt of our Abilities, in maintaining Peace and good Order in this County; in ſuppreſſing and preventing all Riots and Tumults; and in bringing to Puniſhment all Perſons who may guard attempt to disturb the Quiet of our Neighbourhood, if any such should dare to appear amongst us.

That it may please Almighty God long to preserve your Majesty to be the Father and Happiness of a loyal and contented People, is our most sincere Wish and fervent Prayer.

Signed by Order and in Presence of the Meeting, at Selkirk, the 18th Day of June, 1792 Years.

Napier, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AT a Time when the Government of the Kingdom is declared to be dangerous, from the Machinations of seditious Men, we the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Principal Burgesses, Assistants, Freeholders, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Okehampton, beg Leave to approach the Throne with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Affection towards your Royal Person, and to return your Majesty our most sincere and cordial Acknowledgements for the Measures which your Majesty has thought proper to adopt, in order to guard against and counteract the Effects of the late seditious Publications, which have been industriously dispersed throughout the Kingdom. We deprecate every Innovation on the established Laws of our excellent and invaluable Constitution in Church and State, and will chearfully exert ourselves, to the utmost of our Power, to discourage and suppress every Attempt which may be made against the Public Peace and Order of Society.

[Transmitted by Robert Ladbroke, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Landed Proprietors of the County of Renfrew, beg Leave to approach the Throne with every Sentiment of Fidelity and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and to return your Majesty our most grateful Thanks for the Proclamation you have been graciously pleased to issue, for the Suppression of certain wicked and seditious Writings, lately printed and dispersed in this Kingdom, tending to excite Tumults and Disorders, and to raise Jealousies and Discontents in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, which may be productive of the most alarming and dangerous Consequences.

Fully convinced of the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, we behold with Abhorrence every Attempt to vilify and subvert our present happy Constitution, and are determined to exert ourselves, in the most effectual Manner in our Power, to preserve the Peace and good Order of Society, and to check and repress all wicked and malicious Attempts to interrupt the Security and Happiness of our Fellow Subjects, which must invariably depend on a zealous Attachment to the established Government, and a due Submission to the Laws of the Country.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free, happy and united People, and that the Constitution, in Church and State, may be transmitted unimpaired to the latest Posterity, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed in the Name, and by the Appointment of the Meeting, at Renfrew. the 21st Day of June, 1792 Years.

William M'Dowall, Præses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Tain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Tain, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Hearts full of Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoy under your mild, just and happy Government.

Impressed with the highest Veneration for our glorious Constitution, it is with the utmost Satisfaction we observe that your Majesty has been graciously pleased to issue your Royal Proclamation to preserve that ancient Mode of Government sacred from the Attempts of designing and ill-minded Men.

In our several Capacities of Magistrates and of Citizens your Majesty may rely on our strictest Attention to the Recommendations contained in your Royal Proclamation, and we trust, Loyalty to your Majesty, Subordination to the Laws, and a proper Sense of the Benefits resulting from our Civil and Religious Liberties, are too deeply instilled in the Minds and Manners of the People to be frustrated by seditious Publications of some few Individuals.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that the present Constitution may continue, unimpaired, the Admiration of future as of past Ages, is the sincere Wish of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Council, at Tain, the 21st Day of June, 1792, by

Ch. Ross, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Ayr.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Ayr, convened at Ayr this Day, for the Purpose of taking under our most serious Consideration your Majesty's late Royal Proclamation, warning your Majesty's faithful and loving Subjects against those seditious Writings, which have been published and industriously dispersed, aiming at the Subversion of all regular Government, and tending to excite groundless Jealousies and Discontents respecting the Laws and happy Constitution of this Kingdom, exhorting them at the same Time to avoid and discourage all Proceedings tending to produce Riots and Tumults. With Hearts full of Gratitude and Thanks for this seasonable Instance of your Majesty's paternal Benevolence and wise Prevention, most humbly beg Leave to assure your your Majeſty that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, collectively and individually, attend to the neceſſary and ſalutary Requiſitions contained in your Majeſty's moſt gracious Proclamation.

Permit us alſo, Sire, to renew our Profeſſions of unſhaken and inviolable Attachment to our preſent glorious and happy Conſtitution, eſtabliſhed at the Revolution, and gradually improved to the preſent Hour; not by the dangerous Hands of Political Empyrics, not by factious or deſigning Reformiſts, but by the temperate Wiſdom and cool Reflection of the Conſtituent Powers of the Legiſlature.

Whilſt we would deprecate, moſt Gracious Sovereign, at all Times, any great or ſudden Innovation on a Conſtitution, under which the Bleſſings of Civil and Religious Liberty are more completely ſecured and enjoyed than under any Form of Government hitherto known in the World, we would moſt ardently deſire to expreſs our united, firm and unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, our conſtitutional Monarch, under whoſe benign Government we experience thoſe Bleſſings, and a State of unexampled Proſperity, which we devoutly hope ſhall be long continued to us, under your Majeſty's mild and patriotic Influence, and be tranſmitted to our Deſcendants under future Sovereigns of your Majeſty's Auguſt Houſe.

Signed by our Preſes, in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Ayr, the 20th of June, 1792.

Whitehall, June 30.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Burgeſſes and Commonalty, and other the Inhabitants of the Borough of Daventry in the County of Northampton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgeſſes, Commonalty, and other the Inhabitants of the Borough of Daventry, moſt humbly ſupplicate your Majeſty to accept our grateful Acknowledgments for the paternal Solicitude and Care which your Majeſty has been moſt graciouſly pleaſed to expreſs for the Peace and Happineſs of your People in your late Royal Proclamation againſt the Publication and Diſperſion of wicked and ſeditious Writings.

We are deeply ſenſible of the very high and exalted Rank we bear amongſt the Kingdoms of the World, and that, under the Bleſſing of God and the Reign of a moſt virtuous King, we are the moſt favoured and happy Nation upon Earth.

We are alſo conſcious of the Excellence of our own Conſtitution, and anxious for it's Permanency; we cannot, therefore, without juſt Indignation, behold the dangerous and criminal Spirit of thoſe who labour to diſturb the Public Tranquillity, and, under the ſpecious Pretence of Reformation, aim at Subverſion and Confuſion.

Duty, Allegiance, and a due Regard to the Security of our own Intereſts, unite in obliging us to concur in your Majeſty's Views; and we ſolemnly engage ourſelves, in our ſeveral Departments, to promote your Majeſty's Deſigns to ſuppreſs Sedition, and perpetuate Fidelity to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, and to the Principles of the Conſtitution, both in Church and State, as eſtabliſhed at the Glorious Revolution.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, Common Council, and Community of the Royal Burgh of Peebles.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to approach the Throne with moſt ſincere Aſſurance of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, Family and Government, and of our high Veneration for the already eſtabliſhed and happy Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms.

Impreſſed with a grateful Senſe of the ineſtimable Bleſſings we thus enjoy, it is with the utmoſt Satisfaction we obſerve, by your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, ſuch paternal Attention paid to preſerve our ſacred Eſtabliſhment from inſidious and ſeditious Attempts to innovate or ſubvert a Syſtem of Government under which our Country has been ſo highly favoured for more than a Century paſt.

In Support of your Majeſty's gracious Views, we beg Leave to declare, that it ſhall be our conſtant Endeavour, in our different Capacities, to inculcate a due Subordination to the Laws, to check all ſeditious Publications, and ſuppreſs all Riots, Tumults, and diſorderly Meetings, which may be attempted to be raiſed within our Juriſdiction, upon any Pretext whatever.

That your Majeſty may long reign over a happy People, bleſſed with the Company and Virtues of your Royal and amiable Conſort; that your Children may inherit the Graces and Virtues which adorn their Parents; and that His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales may, like your Majeſty, perſevere in Support of thoſe Conſtitutional Principles which he has ſo openly and Prince-like avowed, is our moſt ardent Wiſh and ſincere Prayer.

Signed in Name, in Preſence, and by Appointment of the Magiſtrates, Common Council, and Community of Peebles, and the Seal of the Burgh affixed hereto, at Peebles, this 18th Day of June, 1792 Years, by
